Grilled chicken skewers with a lemon and thyme drizzle, or a fresh pear and goat cheese salad with a honey vinaigrette.

2023 ADELAIDE HILLS PINOT GRIS

COLOUR	Light straw with a hint of copper-pink
AROMA	Apple blossom and delicate floral jasmine
PALATE	A creamy textured mid-palate is balanced by crisp apple, with a delicious flinty mineral finish.

WINEMAKING

Fruit sourced from the Adelaide Hills region was picked during the cool of the evening to maintain its freshness and quality. Cool fermentation in stainless steel tanks was employed for individual batches to retain the vibrant fruit flavours. Following this, the wine underwent blending, stabilisation, and filtration before bottling.

VINTAGE SUMMARY

The 2023 growing season in the Adelaide Hills saw a return to typical seasonal patterns, with early rainfall ensuring a solid start. The transition from initial cold to favourable growing conditions fostered robust vine and flower development. The region achieved a moderate crop level with extended ripening, leading to a harvest that promised wines of extraordinary flavour, balance, and aromatic complexity, characteristic of the renowned quality associated with the Adelaide Hills region.
